

SB 235 -- Local Government Indebtedness

Sponsor: Quick

This bill requires that the calculation of the constitutional limit for local government indebtedness include the additional value added as a result of redevelopment projects in the area. The county assessor is required to include the value when making entries in the assessor's book.